

The cover features a collage of Michigan football players. In the foreground, a player in a white jersey with the number 2 is running with the ball. Behind him, a player in a dark blue jersey with the number 9 is visible. To the left, a group of players in dark blue jerseys and yellow pants are lined up. The background is a large, stylized 'M' in white and blue. The word 'MICHIGAN' is written in large, bold, yellow letters across the middle. At the bottom, there is a logo for 'M FOOTBALL 2023' and 'PRESENTED BY meijer'. The overall color scheme is blue and yellow.

JIM HARBAUGH

J. IRA AND NICKI HARRIS FAMILY HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

N

OW IN HIS NINTH YEAR AS HEAD COACH, JIM HARBAUGH has led Michigan to back-to-back Big Ten Championships and College Football Playoff appearances (2021-22).

U-M won a school record 13 games in 2022, surpassing the 12-win seasons attained by the 1905, 1997 and 2021 teams. The Wolverines listed No. 3 in the final national polls for the second straight season which was only the third time in school history where the program finished in the top 5 in consecutive years.

Overall, Harbaugh has guided the Wolverines to a 74-25 record and is 53-17 in Big Ten games. He has led U-M to five 10-win seasons and seven bowl games, including consecutive College Football Playoff Semifinal appearances (2021-22), two New Year's Six bowls and three additional New Year's Day bowl games. His teams have finished the season ranked in the national polls on six occasions, including three finishes in the top 10.

Thirteen Wolverines have secured 17 All-America honors under Harbaugh, including nine consensus honorees: Devin Bush, Jake Butt, Maurice Hurst, Jourdan Lewis, Jabrill Peppers, Aidan Hutchinson, Jake Moody, Blake Corum and Olu Oluwatimi.

Hutchinson (second place, 2021) and Peppers (fifth place, 2016) were also Heisman Trophy finalists while Corum finished seventh in the 2022 balloting.

Five players have won major awards during Harbaugh's tenure: Butt (2016 Mackey Award, Senior CLASS Award), Peppers (2016 Lott IMPACT Trophy and Paul Hornung Award), Hutchinson (2021 Rotary Lombardi Award, Ted Hendricks Award, Lott IMPACT Trophy), Moody (2021 Lou Groza Award) and Oluwatimi (2022 Outland Trophy and Rimington Trophy). Overall, eight have been finalists for 12 different honors.

A total of 95 Wolverines have earned All-Big Ten honors, with 30 players earning first-team all-conference honors. A record 16 players collected All-Big Ten honors in 2016 and 15 Wolverines received the honor during the 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2022 seasons. In the classroom, Michigan has totaled 344 Academic All-Big Ten honors, including a program-record 60 in 2021 and 2022.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

1994-2001	Western Kentucky	Volunteer Assistant
2002-03	Oakland Raiders	Quarterbacks
2004-06	San Diego	Head Coach
2007-10	Stanford	Head Coach
2011-14	San Francisco 49ers	Head Coach
2015-present	University of Michigan	Head Coach of the Year, and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the 1995 AFC Championship Game. In 2005, he was inducted into the Colts' Ring of Honor.

As a Wolverine, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished runner-up the following year. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years.

In 1986, Harbaugh won the Chicago Tribune Big Ten MVP award, was a first-team All-American and finished third in Heisman Trophy voting.

The first Michigan quarterback to throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin), Harbaugh also eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against Michigan State and Ohio State. During his college career, he completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns; all four statistical categories still list among the top 12 in school history.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and two sons, Jack and John. He also has three adult children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.

During Harbaugh's tenure, Michigan has produced three of the five most-productive offensive seasons in school history. U-M has had a top-12 national defense in six seasons and a top-three unit on three occasions.

Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in Michigan football history on Dec. 30, 2014. He became the sixth Michigan football player selected to lead college football's winningest program.

In four years in the NFL, Harbaugh led the San Francisco 49ers to the NFC Championship three times, winning the NFC title in 2012. He tallied a 49-22-1 overall record, including 5-3 in the postseason.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular-season record and the NFC Championship Game in 2011, his first season, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular-season in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only matchup of brothers as head coaches in NFL history.

At the collegiate level, Harbaugh spent three years at the University of San Diego (2004-06) and four years at Stanford (2007-10). He turned around a Cardinal program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory in 2010. In his debut as a head coach, Harbaugh led San Diego to a 29-6 record in three seasons.

He spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the Oakland Raiders' quarterbacks coach, assisting the team to Super Bowl XXXVII.

During his professional playing days, Harbaugh spent eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001).

As an NFL quarterback, he played for five organizations in his 15-year career (1987-2001). He threw for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games and made 140 career starts. He was the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player

WOLVERINES HEADING EAST: OUR TEAM TRIP DAILY BLOG

Football's 2023 Spring Trip

The MICHIGAN FOOTBALL TEAM at Arlington National Cemetery.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN FOOTBALL TEAM continued its series of educational and experiential learning opportunities for student-athletes this spring with a trip including stops across the eastern part of the United States. The one-week trip brought the Wolverines to New York City, Washington D.C., Gettysburg, and included stops at the Rock and Roll and Pro Football Halls of Fame. Across these locations, the team visited some of the most culturally and historically significant places in America.

DAY ONE

Following an early breakfast and flight, the Wolverines arrived in New York City through Newark Airport. After lunch, the first stop for the team was the Statue of Liberty, where the group witnessed up close the national monument that was a gift of friendship from the people of France to the United States and is recognized as a universal symbol of freedom and democracy. Later in the afternoon, the roster was divided into groups based on their professional interests as they explored educational opportunities in Real Estate, Finance, Sports Industry, and the FBI. Former Wolverines Dave Pearson and Jamar Adams, the NFL's Brian Rolapp, and members of the New York division of the FBI, led the different sessions and provided real-world knowledge from which players could learn. The team enjoyed dinner at Bond 45 thanks to donor Tim Smith, attended Broadway performances, and finished the evening with nighttime viewings of the Empire State Building and Times Square.

44 Big Ten Titles | 11 National Titles | 50 Bowl Games | 14th Season

DAY TWO

With heavy rain in the area, Wolverine players and staffers spent the early part of the day on a bus tour around the city. The many sights and locations included Trinity Church, the New York Stock Exchange/Wall Street, Little Italy, Chinatown, Madison Square Garden, Times Square, Radio City Music Hall, Central Park, 5th Avenue, Rockefeller Center, and St. Patrick's Cathedral. Buses also stopped at Ground Zero and the 9/11 Memorial and Museum to reflect on an important day in American history, one which many current roster members were not alive for or have no memory of experiencing. Once tours were complete, the team made its way to Grand Central Station before taking a train from Penn Station to arrive in the nation's capital, Washington D.C. After checking into the hotel, the team relaxed with an evening at Top Golf.

DAY THREE

The Wolverines began their first full day in D.C. with a visit to the African American History Museum. The informative museum pieces and powerful stories told generated dialogue for everyone in attendance. The afternoon included a trip to the International Spy Museum, where the team learned about the history of real-life spies and saw the largest collection of international espionage artifacts ever placed on public display. The evening concluded with a team outing at Pinstripes, where everyone enjoyed a night of bowling, bocce, and games thanks to donors Jeremy and Robin London.

DAY FOUR

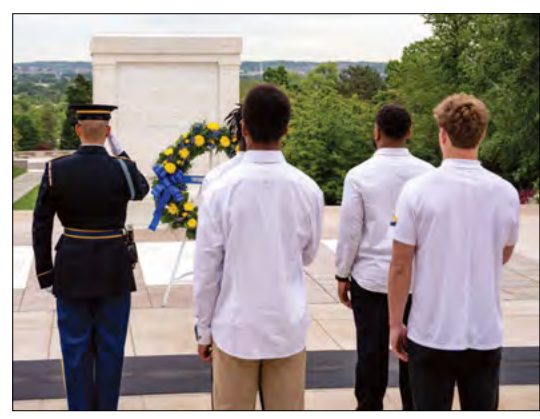

To start the day, the Maize and Blue spent time touring the U.S. Capitol building. The team was hosted by Michigan State Representative Debbie Dingell and was joined by many members of Michigan's congressional delegation from the area. Lunch was provided by U-M Law School Alum Broderick Johnson at Comcast Headquarters where the Wolverines learned about digital equity. Following lunch, the team saw two more historic government locations — the Supreme Court and the Library of Congress. To close out the night, the team took in a baseball game at Nationals Park where the Nats hosted the Chicago Cubs.

WOLVERINES HEADING EAST: OUR TEAM TRIP DAILY BLOG

Football's 2023 Spring Trip

DAY FIVE

The team's final full day in the nation's capital began with a morning visit to Arlington National Cemetery. Those in attendance learned about the sacrifices made in defense of our country by those who are laid to rest there and witnessed the Changing of the Guard. The team visited the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and participated in a public wreath ceremony. Four individuals — Michael Barrett, Cornelius Johnson, J.J. McCarthy, and Rod Moore — had the honor of laying the wreath. Lunch was held at Farmers Fishers Bakers in Georgetown. Players then had a chance to take advantage of a range of activities, choosing to spend time at one of the following locations: the Holocaust Museum, the American History Museum, the Air and Space Museum, the Natural History Museum, the National Portrait Gallery, and the National Mall/Washington Monument. At night, the team got a unique tour of special memorial and monument sites, including World War II, Vietnam, Lincoln, Korean War and the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. memorials.

DAY SIX

The Wolverines hit the road early, making their way from D.C. to Gettysburg, Pa. After lunch at the Gettysburg Hotel, Steven Wiley from the Lincoln Leadership Institute at Gettysburg spoke to the team about what are the qualities of a great leader and how it applied to the battlefield at Gettysburg and the parallels to the game of football. The team traveled through the Gettysburg Military Park Museum and Battlefield learning about the biggest battle waged on American soil. Later in the afternoon, the team made its way to Cleveland with a short flight from Harrisburg Airport to get set up for the final day of the trip.

DAY SEVEN

Following breakfast and a short drive over to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, team members made their way through a two-hour tour viewing some of the most entertaining performers and bands in music history. Lunch was available following tours, and the team then boarded buses for an hour-long drive to Canton to visit the Pro Football Hall of Fame. There, players toured the facility and learned of some of the game's pioneers, with visits to the former Michigan Wolverine players who grace the hallowed halls: George Allen, Dan Dierdorf, Len Ford, Benny Friedman, Bill Hewitt, Elroy Hirsch, Steve Hutchinson, Ty Law, Tom Mack, Ralph Wilson, and Charles Woodson. After an early dinner at the Hall, the team made its way back to Ann Arbor around 7 p.m.

A low-angle shot of several football players reaching their hands up towards a brown football. The players are wearing various colored jerseys and gloves. The background is a clear blue sky with some light clouds. The overall tone is energetic and team-oriented.

2022 SEASON IN REVIEW

Capping the Winningest Two-Year Stretch of Michigan Football History

THE 2022 WOLVERINES WON 13 GAMES FOR THE FIRST TIME EVER, capping the winningest two-year stretch of Michigan Football (25-3) in history. U-M finished No. 3 in the final CFP rankings and in the final AP/Coaches polls. The team became the second Big Ten team to go undefeated and win 10 Big Ten games since the conference title game was introduced in 2011.

The season included U-M's first back-to-back Big Ten Championships since 2003-04 and the team's first victory in Columbus at Ohio Stadium since 2000 with an in-season sweep over rivals Michigan State, Penn State, and Ohio State.

Michigan dominated the non-conference schedule with a cumulative scoring margin of 166-17. The team then proceeded to defeat its first seven Big Ten opponents by an average of 21.8 points, including wins over rivals Michigan State and Penn State.

A last-second game-winning field goal lifted the Wolverines over Illinois on Senior Day before the team made history with a beatdown of the Buckeyes, giving U-M back-to-back wins in the rivalry for the first time since 1999-2000.

Michigan captured its conference-leading 44th Big Ten Championship with a 43-22 win over Purdue at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. Running back Donovan Edwards (186 rushing yards, one touchdown) was named the game's Grange-Griffin Most Valuable Player as U-M became back-to-back Big Ten Champs.

The Wolverines reached College Football's biggest stage for the second year in a row, playing in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl in Glendale, Arizona. U-M's finish marked the third time in program history with consecutive seasons ending in a top-three ranking (1940-41; 1947-48).

AWARDS AND HONORS

JOE MOORE REPEAT

The first-ever team to win in back-to-back years, U-M averaged 238.9 rushing yards per game (No. 5, NCAA) with 41 rushing touchdowns (No. 2, NCAA) while all five starters collected All-Big Ten honors under Sanford Robertson Co-Offensive Coordinator/Donald C. Graham Football Offensive Line Coach Sherrone Moore.

CORUM'S AWARDS

Running back Blake Corum was named the Chicago Tribune's Big Ten Silver Football Award Winner as the league's MVP as voted by the coaches, finished 7th in the Heisman Trophy balloting, and was named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award after he ran for more yards (1,463) than any U-M back since Mike Hart and scored 19 touchdowns.

OLUWATIMI HONORED

Offensive linemen often do not receive much credit for team success, but center Olusegun Oluwatimi was recognized as the 2022 winner of the Rimington Trophy and the program's first-ever Outland Trophy winner after being charged with zero sacks while supporting the Big Ten's best run game.

MOODY MAKES HISTORY

Two-time Lou Groza Award Finalist Kicker Jake Moody finished his career with program records for the most: points scored in a career (355), points in a single season (147), career field goals (69), single-season field goals (29), single-game field goals (6) and points (19), 40-plus yard field goals in a career (17) and a single season (10), PATs made in a season (60), longest field goal in program history (59 yards), tied-most 50-plus yard field goals (4), and tied-best career PAT percentage (100).

COACHES RECOGNIZED

J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach Jim Harbaugh was named the Big Ten's Coach of the Year by the media and his peers, as well as the AFCA Region 3 Coach of the Year. The Wolverines had 15 players earn first or second-team All-Big Ten honors including seven first-teamers and matched a program record with 60 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in 2022. Matthew Lester Family Defensive Coordinator Jesse Minter was also recognized in the award circuit as a finalist for the Broyles Award, honoring the nation's top assistant coach.

2022 SEASON IN REVIEW

Capping the Winningest Two-Year Stretch of Michigan Football History

COLORADO STATE (SEPT. 3) | W, 51-7

The 2022 season began with Michigan clicking on all cylinders in a dominant home opener against the Rams at Michigan Stadium. The Wolverines scored the game's first 37 points and scored at least two times in all four quarters while 15 different players caught passes. The defense forced seven sacks and two turnovers, including a fumble returned 45 yards for a touchdown by D.J. Turner.

Wide receiver ROMAN WILSON celebrates one of his two touchdowns against his native Hawai'i.

Running back BLAKE CORUM reaches the end zone on a day when he had a career-high 243 yards rushing.

MARYLAND (SEPT. 24) | W, 34-27

The Wolverines scored eight seconds into their Big Ten opener after recovering a fumbled kickoff and iced the win with a 17-point fourth quarter during Homecoming in Ann Arbor. Blake Corum ran for 243 yards and two touchdowns, the most yards by any Big Ten back in a game last year.

Defensive back D.J. TURNER crosses the goal line after he returned a fumble 45 yards for a touchdown in the home opener vs. Colorado State..

HAWAII (SEPT. 10) | W, 56-10

Following a lightning delay, the Wolverines rolled up 588 yards of offense under the lights at the Big House during a dominant display. Island native wide receiver Roman Wilson scored twice (once rushing) in the first quarter while the defense kept Hawaii to 47 yards in the first half. It was quarterback J.J. McCarthy's first career start, and he threw three touchdown passes and ran for another.

UCONN (SEPT. 17) | W, 59-0

In U-M's third straight 50-point game, the defense kept UConn to 110 total yards in the Wolverines' first shutout since the 2019 season. Running back Blake Corum matched the single-game program record with five rushing touchdowns and special teams ace Caden Kolesar blocked a punt in the second quarter to set up a touchdown.

Running back BLAKE CORUM dives into the end zone for one of his five touchdowns, matching the single-game program record.

2022 SEASON IN REVIEW

Capping the Winningest Two-Year Stretch of Michigan Football History

IOWA (OCT. 1) | W, 27-14

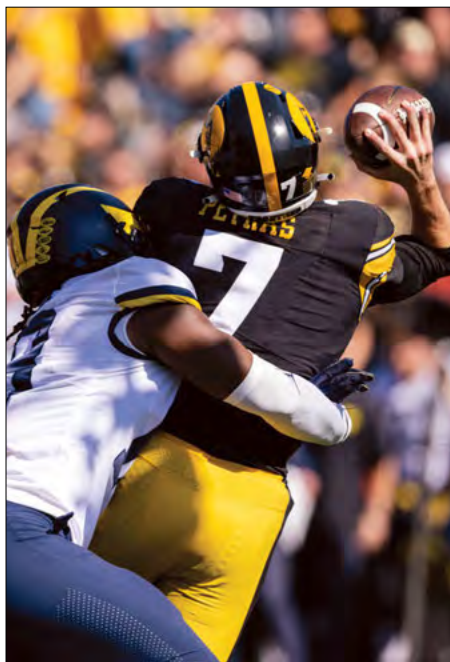

Michigan's top-ranked scoring offense went to battle with Iowa's top-ranked scoring defense and emerged as the victor in the first road test of the season. U-M maintained the 13-point lead it took to the locker room with a strong, well-rounded effort. Iowa was limited to 35 yards rushing while the Wolverine defense kept up the pressure with four sacks.

INDIANA (OCT. 8) | W, 31-10

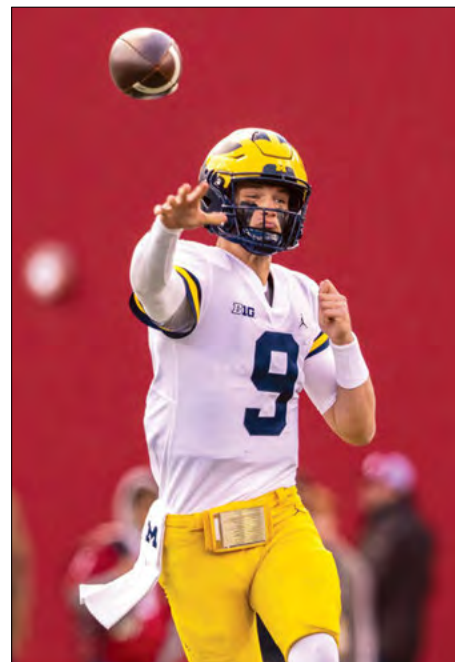

The defense stifled the Hoosiers' tempo offense and J.J. McCarthy had his best game as a passer, going 28-of-36 with his first career 300-yard passing game and three touchdowns. Seven sacks came from seven different players. Blake Corum (rushing) and Ronnie Bell (receiving) each cracked 100 yards while Cornelius Johnson caught two touchdown passes.

PENN STATE (OCT. 15) | W, 41-17

In a convincing display, the Wolverines ran for 418 yards and pummeled Penn State in a divisional showdown. U-M piled up 563 yards of offense and outscored the Nittany Lions 25-3 in the second half, using 61- and 67-yard touchdown runs from Blake Corum and Donovan Edwards, respectively, to pull away.

Edge rusher EYABI OKIE completes the second of two Wolverine sacks during the Hawkeyes' late comeback attempt.

Quarterback J.J. MCCARTHY lets the ball fly during his first career 300-yard passing game at Indiana.

Running Back DONOVAN EDWARDS' standout day was aided by a career-long 67-yard touchdown run that put the Wolverines up, 24-17, late in the contest against PSU.

Kicker JAKE MOODY lines up one of his five field goals against Michigan State. Moody had 17 points on the day including a career-long 54-yard conversion.

MICHIGAN STATE (OCT. 29) | W, 29-7

The Wolverines earned rights to the Paul Bunyan Trophy following a win over rival Michigan State. The Spartans were held to three first downs in the entire second half and finished with 37 rushing yards on 23 attempts. Blake Corum totaled 177 yards rushing and scored twice, and kicker Jake Moody was five-for-five on field goals including a career-best 54-yarder.

RUTGERS (NOV. 5) | W, 52-17

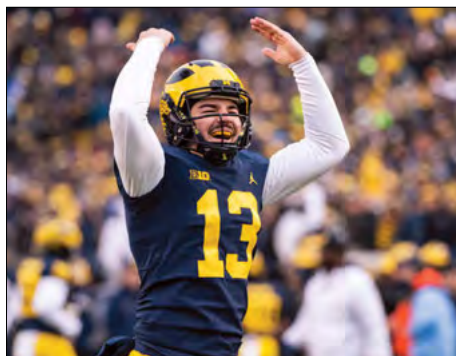

Michigan rallied from its first halftime deficit of the season with an emphatic final two quarters, sparked by the defense. Linebacker Michael Barrett intercepted two passes, returning one for a touchdown, and Will Johnson intercepted a third, to give U-M 21 points in 1:42 of game action early in the third quarter. That, plus Corum's sixth straight 100-yard game, helped the Wolverines pull away.

Linebacker MICHAEL BARRETT returns the second of his two interceptions 31 yards for a pick-six touchdown in the third quarter at Rutgers.

ILLINOIS (NOV. 19) | W, 19-17

Kicker Jake Moody converted on a 35-yard field goal — his fourth of the game — with nine seconds remaining to lock up the win on Senior Day. Michigan had to overcome injuries and its first fourth-quarter deficit of the season to secure the victory.

Kicker JAKE MOODY ended senior day on a high note with his first career game-winning field goal. Moody had three field goals in the fourth quarter and won the game with a 35-yarder in the final seconds.

2022 SEASON IN REVIEW

Capping the Winningest Two-Year Stretch of Michigan Football History

Defensive lineman KRIS JENKINS celebrates a stop behind the line of scrimmage. Nebraska only entered the red zone once against Michigan.

NEBRASKA (NOV. 12) | W, 34-3

U-M overwhelmed with its defense and run game in Jim Harbaugh's 50th Big Ten win as head coach. The Huskers only crossed midfield twice and had only one first down in the second half. The Maize and Blue cruised to victory with points in three of its first five possessions and Corum's 162 yards on the ground.

OHIO STATE (NOV. 26) | W, 45-23

Wide receiver Cornelius Johnson and running back Donovan Edwards each had two touchdowns of 65-plus yards, a rivalry-first, as Michigan out-rushed the Buckeyes 242-19 in the second half to clinch the Big Ten East. It was the program's biggest win in Columbus since a 1976 shutout.

Running back DONOVAN EDWARDS and wide receiver CORNELIUS JOHNSON celebrate as Edwards heads into the end zone. Both players had two touchdowns each of 65-plus yards, a rivalry first.

PURDUE (DEC. 3) | W, 43-22

U-M won its league-leading 44th conference title with a victory at Lucas Oil Stadium. The Wolverines had a balanced recipe of touchdowns (three rushing, three passing) and defense (two interceptions, two sacks) as Donovan Edwards (185 yards rushing, one touchdown) was the Griffin-Grange Big Ten Championship Game MVP.

TCU (DEC. 31) | L, 45-51

Michigan had its record-setting season come to an end in the College Football Playoff Semifinal, falling 51-45 to TCU in a topsy-turvy affair in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl. The two teams combined for 1,012 yards of offense and posted a record-breaking 44 points in the third quarter. U-M finished with 528 yards, including 343 through the air.

WOLVERINES in the NFL

Two legendary U-M quarterbacks retired from the NFL after the 2022 season. TOM BRADY retired after 20 seasons in New England and three more in Tampa Bay. He leaves the game as its most decorated player, with seven Super Bowl Championships in 10 appearances and five MVPs. CHAD HENNE left the game on top, following a 13-year career that saw him win the Super Bowl twice in Kansas City (LIV, LVII), including this past season.

MICHAEL DANNA (pictured left), falls to one knee to celebrate his first career Super Bowl. The Kansas City Chiefs became Super Bowl LVII champions following the team's 38-35 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles. A memorable game that came down to the final moments featured a second-half comeback from Kansas City. Eagles defensive end Brandon Graham played 25 snaps in pursuit of his second Super Bowl title.

On the Chiefs' side, former Wolverines Frank Clark, Chad Henne (second Super Bowl each) and Michael Danna (first) hoisted the Lombardi Trophy in celebration. Clark and Danna made one tackle each in the win. Henne announced his retirement following the victory, ending a 13-season career.

A total of 401 Michigan Wolverines have been selected in the NFL Draft. Defensive lineman Mazi Smith (No. 26 overall) was a first-round selection last spring. U-M has nine first-round selections in the last seven NFL drafts and a total of 52 first-round NFL Draft picks.

BRANDON GRAHAM reached double-digit sacks (11.0) for the first time in his 13-year career while helping the Eagles reach the Super Bowl.

MICHIGAN STADIUM

THE HOME OF MICHIGAN FOOTBALL

O

NE OF THE COUNTRY'S MOST CLASSIC AND WIDELY RECOGNIZED ATHLETICS FACILITIES, MICHIGAN STADIUM symbolizes pride, tradition and excellence. It's where you want to be on a fall Saturday in Ann Arbor!

With winning teams and large crowds in the early 1920s, head coach Fielding Yost realized the need for a larger football stadium. He asked for the Regents' approval, but with the 1921 expansion of Ferry Field, they were hesitant to move forward with a new stadium. With Yost's perseverance, they finally approved it on April 22, 1926. One and a half years later, the first game in Michigan Stadium was played on Oct. 1, 1927, a 33-0 win over Ohio Wesleyan. Dedication of the new stadium came three weeks later, Oct. 22, 1927, against Ohio State, in another Michigan victory.

The stadium was built on land purchased for $240,000, with a vision of 100,000-150,000 capacity. After much debate, the Regents, the University and Yost reached an agreement by which the stadium would seat 72,000, with the ability to eclipse 100,000. The construction was financed not by the taxpayers of the State of Michigan, but by the sale of 3,000 $500 bonds.

Four-hundred forty tons of reinforcing steel and 31,000 square feet of wire mesh went into the 44-section, 72-row stadium at a cost of $950,000. As the stadium neared completion, Yost requested an additional 10,000 temporary seats for the concourse. Michigan Stadium opened at the corner of Main Street and Stadium Boulevard with a capacity of 84,401 — the largest college-owned stadium of any team in the nation.

The stadium has undergone many changes and renovations over time, while increasing capacity to its present 107,601. While there are many things known about Michigan Stadium, one aspect that remains a mystery is the location of Fritz Crisler's seat — the one "extra" seat that is indicated in the capacity number given to Michigan Stadium every year since 1956.

SCHEMBECHLER HALL & GLICK FIELD HOUSE

THE HOME OF MICHIGAN FOOTBALL

MICHIGAN FOOTBALL IS SYNONYMOUS WITH THE BIG HOUSE, but during the week, student-athletes and staff can be found on the Stephen M. Ross Athletic Campus on State Street.

Schembechler Hall has been home to Michigan football since 1991. In 2014, the facility underwent a renovation and expansion that added approximately 7,000 gross square feet, while another existing 7,000 gross square feet were renovated.

An expanded performance center was built adjacent to Schembechler Hall in 2019, dedicating 32,000-square feet within Oosterbaan Fieldhouse with the Glick Family Weight Room. Additional renovations to Schembechler Hall have created new spaces for athletic medicine, rehabilitation, wellness and nutrition. The project also included renovations to team meeting rooms, equipment rooms and administrative spaces. The facility includes a full-team locker room, coaches' locker room, NFL scout accommodations, and a Commons area for team meals and gatherings. Funding was provided from planned athletic department resources and gifts.

Just inside the entrance of Schembechler Hall is the Towsley Family Museum which includes interactive displays, historic memorabilia, and a "win wall" that includes one football representing every win in program history.

In 2009, the 104,049-square foot Al Glick Field House opened as Michigan football's indoor practice facility, rivaling elite professional football facilities. It includes a full-size indoor practice field with a state-of-the-art FieldTurf playing surface. The field has 20 feet of run-off behind each end zone and 25 feet of clearance on both sidelines. The height reaches 85 feet in the middle to accommodate kicking.

Outside of the indoor facility are Field Turf outdoor practice fields and a natural grass practice field. The facility is named in honor of Al Glick, co-founder and CEO of Alro Steel, a Jackson, Michigan, based steel company.

The GLICK FAMILY WEIGHT ROOM is adjacent to the training room.

RIVALRY GAMES

The Little Brown Jug, Paul Bunyan Trophy and Ohio State

THE LITTLE BROWN JUG

Trophy Series (since 1909): Michigan leads, 72-23-2

Overall Series: Michigan leads, 76-25-3

Dating back to 1909, the Battle for the Little Brown Jug is the oldest trophy game in FBS college football.

While the jug rivalry started in 1909, the story began six years earlier when the teams battled in Minneapolis. Heading into that 1903 contest, Michigan had won 29 straight games, while the Golden Gophers entered the game with a 10-0 record. Having doubts that Minnesota would provide clean water for its opponent, team manager Tommy Roberts purchased a five-gallon jug from a variety store in Minneapolis that would be free of suspicion.

With two minutes left in the game, Minnesota rallied to tie it up, 6-6, on a touchdown. The fans rushed the field in excitement. The ensuing pandemonium led to the game being called with time still remaining on the clock.

In their haste to catch the train back to Chicago, Michigan left the jug behind. Minnesota equipment manager Oscar Munson found it the following morning and brought it to Director of Athletics L.J. Cooke. They gave it a paint job, scribing, "Michigan Jug — Captured by Oscar, October 31, 1903," on one side and the score on the other, making the Minnesota "6" three times larger than Michigan's.

Stories vary as to when and why the teams decided to play for the jug, but the predominant version is that Fielding Yost sent a letter requesting the jug be returned to Ann Arbor. Cooke allegedly wrote back, "If you want it, you'll have to come up and win it." In 1909, Michigan did just that, defeating the Gophers, 15-6.

PAUL BUNYAN TROPHY

Trophy Series (since 1953): Michigan leads, 39-29-2

Overall Series: Michigan leads, 72-38-5

The annual Michigan-Michigan State game gives the winner state bragging rights, an inside track to a bowl game, and last, but certainly not least, ownership of the Paul Bunyan - Governor of Michigan Trophy.

Presented for the first time in the 1953 matchup, the Paul Bunyan Trophy was put into circulation by then-Michigan Governor G. Mennen Williams. The prize consists of a four-foot wooden statue of the legendary Paul Bunyan astride an axe with feet planted on a map of the state of Michigan. Two flags — one with the Michigan "M" and the other with the Michigan State "S" — are planted on either side of Bunyan. A five-foot stand supports the statue.

THE GAME

Overall Series: Michigan leads, 60-52-6

There is no trophy on the line for "The Game." This series, rooted in tradition, is all about pride and an intense aversion between Michigan and Ohio State.

The series spans three centuries and 117 games, dating back to 1897. As the cliché goes, throw the records out the window when these two teams meet. Each draws the strongest competitor and best performance out of the other as they strive to ruin their rival's season.

Since 1935, The Game has been contested on the last Saturday of every season, and more often than not, has had Big Ten championship, if not national championship, implications.

RETIRED NUMBERS

Nos. 11, 21, 47, 48, 87 & 98

NO. 11 — WHITEY, ALBERT AND ALVIN WISTERT

Francis (Whitey), Albert & Alvin Wistert each earned All-America first team honors, an accomplishment that has never been duplicated at any level of intercollegiate competition. Additionally, all three Wisterts are enshrined in the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and Michigan Hall of Honor.

NO. 21 — DESMOND HOWARD

Desmond Howard raced his way to the 1991 Heisman Trophy. Capping off the season with a 93-yard punt return against Ohio State, he solidified his hold on the Heisman Trophy. Howard concluded his Michigan career as a member of four Big Ten champion teams and participated in three Rose Bowls. He tallied 134 catches for 2,146 yards and 32 touchdowns, in addition to posting 45 kick returns for 1,211 yards and two scores — a U-M record.

NO. 47 — BENNIE OOSTERBAAN

Bennie Oosterbaan was a three-time All-American in football, a two-time All-American in basketball, and a Big Ten batting title champion in baseball for the Wolverines. The Muskegon native turned down offers to play professionally, and instead chose to coach, leading Michigan to the 1948 football national championship. He remained an administrator with the athletic department until he retired in 1972.

NO. 48 — GERALD FORD

Gerald Ford, the 38th President of the United States, was a three-year letterman (1932-34) as a center and linebacker and a member of Big Ten and national championship teams in 1932 and 1933. He was the team's Most Valuable Player in 1934. After turning down professional contract offers to play for the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers, Ford entered a career in politics. In April 1981, he opened the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library on North Campus, and in 1999 the University renamed its world-renowned School of Public Policy after Ford.

NO. 87 — RON KRAMER

Ron Kramer was a two-time consensus All-American (1955-56) and a three-time All-Big Ten first team selection (1954-56). He was a standout two-way player at offensive and defensive end and also saw time at running back, quarterback, kicker and receiver. The former Green Bay Packers All-Pro tight end was a nine-time letterman in three sports at Michigan: football, basketball and track. Kramer led the Wolverines in scoring for two seasons on the gridiron while doing the same in basketball.

NO. 98 — TOM HARMON

Tom Harmon is regarded as one of the greatest athletes in school history. In three seasons, he rushed for 2,134 yards, scored 33 touchdowns and threw 16 touchdown passes. Harmon added 33 point-after attempts and booted two field goals to his 33 TDs for 237 career points. After a four-year stint as a pilot during World War II, earning a Silver Star and the Purple Heart, he became one of the nation's top sports broadcasters and directors, reporting live on major sporting events from the Olympics to the Rose Bowl.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNERS

Michigan's Gridiron Greats

The John W. Heisman Trophy has been given to college football's outstanding player each season since 1935 by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York. The trophy, first known as the D.A.C. trophy, was renamed in 1936 for Heisman, the first athletic director for the Downtown Athletic Club.

Three Michigan players — Tom Harmon (1940), Desmond Howard (1991) and Charles Woodson (1997) — have won the award. Several others have finished among the top 10 in the trophy's voting, including Blake Corum (2022), Aidan Hutchinson (2021) and Jabrill Peppers (2016). Both Harmon (1939) and Bob Chappuis (1947) finished second, while Rob Lytle (1976), Rick Leach (1978) and Jim Harbaugh (1986) finished third. Three others placed fourth: Bob Timberlake (1964), Anthony Carter (1982), and Chris Perry (2003). Carter placed among the top 10 three times as a sophomore (10th), junior (7th) and senior (4th). In 2010, first-year starting quarterback Denard Robinson finished sixth.

TOM HARMON

1940 Heisman Trophy Winner

The 1940 Heisman Trophy winner, Tom Harmon twice led the nation in scoring (1939 and 1940). In his final game at Michigan, Harmon led U-M to a 40-0 victory at Ohio State, posting five touchdowns, three interceptions, four extra points and three punts that averaged 50 yards. Harmon also won the Maxwell Award (College Player of the Year), Walter Camp Trophy (nation's top player), Chicago Tribune Silver Football (Big Ten Conference MVP), was a two-time unanimous All-American and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. He rushed for 2,134 career yards, completed 100 passes for 1,304 yards and 16 touchdowns, and scored 237 points.

Drafted No. 1 by the Chicago Bears in the 1941 NFL Draft, Harmon instead enlisted as a fighter pilot with the Army Air Corps and was later awarded the Purple Heart and Silver Star. He briefly played with the Los Angeles Rams (1946-47) and went on to become one of the first athletes to transition from playing to a successful sports broadcasting career that spanned four decades.

DESMOND HOWARD

1991 Heisman Trophy Winner

An electrifying receiver and returner, Desmond Howard earned Michigan's second Heisman Trophy in 1991. That year, he was also a consensus All-American and received the Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Trophy. A two-time All-Big Ten first team selection, Howard was the first receiver in Big Ten history to lead the conference in scoring. He set or tied five NCAA records and 12 single-season Michigan records as a senior, and holds the Big Ten record with 19 receiving touchdowns. Howard finished his career in Ann Arbor with 134 receptions for 2,146 yards and 32 touchdowns, and holds U-M season records for touchdowns (23) and points scored (138). In 2010, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Selected by Washington with the fourth overall pick of the 1992 NFL Draft, Howard also played for Jacksonville, Green Bay, Oakland and Detroit. He was the first special teams player to be named Super Bowl MVP as a member of the Green Bay Packers in 1996. His 99-yard kickoff return against the Patriots is a Super Bowl record, and his 870 punt return yards in 1996 remain an NFL record.

Like Harmon, Howard pursued a television career and has been part of the ESPN College GameDay crew since 2008.

CHARLES WOODSON

1997 Heisman Trophy Winner

The only primarily defensive player to win the Heisman Trophy, Charles Woodson capped his 1997 season with not only the Heisman, but also the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (best defensive college player), Bednarik Defensive Player of the Year, Walter Camp Trophy, Maxwell Award, and Jim Thorpe Award (nation's best defensive back), and various other player of the year awards. A two-time All-American, Woodson led Michigan to the 1997 national title, finishing his collegiate career with 18 interceptions.

Selected No. 4 overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 1998 NFL Draft, Woodson spent 18 years in the NFL and ranks No. 5 all-time with 65 interceptions. He is the only player in league history with at least 50 interceptions and 20 sacks. He bookended his career with 1998 AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and 2009 AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. Woodson helped the Packers win Super Bowl XLV in 2011 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2021.

Marching Band, Cheerleading Squad and Dance Team

T

HE WOLVERINE ATHLETIC TEAMS ARE SUPPORTED by the nationally acclaimed Michigan Marching Band, U-M dance team and U-M cheerleading squad.

The origin of the Michigan Marching Band was a grass roots student effort in November 1896 when the University of Michigan Band held its first rehearsal. At the request of University President James Burrill Angell that the newly-formed band prove itself to be a "sincere venture," the U-M Band gave its first public performance in 1897 at old University Hall for the Law School.

On November 13 that same year, the 25-member University band accompanied the football team to Detroit for a 14-0 win over Minnesota. By fall 1898, the presence of the band at football games had become integral to Michigan football tradition. Ever since, the Michigan Marching Band has served as an ambassador of the University, providing atmosphere and entertainment at football games, with pep bands doing so at basketball, hockey and various other U-M events.

Dr. John Pasquale was named the Donald R. Shepherd Associate Chair in Conducting and Director of the Michigan Marching Band in 2013. He serves as Director of the Michigan Marching and Athletic Bands, Associate Director of University Bands, and Associate Professor of Conducting. Pasquale directs and oversees the athletic band program, is the conductor of the University Band, guest conductor with the Symphony Band, Symphony Band Chamber Winds, and Concert Band, and teaches classes in rehearsal pedagogy.

Dr. Richard Frey is a member of the conducting faculty at the University of Michigan and serves as the Assistant Director of Bands. He is the Associate Director of the Michigan Marching and Athletic Bands, Director of the Men's Basketball Band, conductor of the Campus Bands, guest conductor of the Symphony Band Chamber Winds, teaches conducting, and coordinates the non-major chamber music program.

The Michigan cheerleading program aims to increase fan support at athletic events and to raise the level of public support for U-M. Led by head coach Pam St. John and her staff, the cheerleaders represent the university at athletic and alumni events both locally and nationally. She has guided her teams to numerous National Cheerleading Association national titles, including the 2022 Coed Division IA and Game Day titles for the third straight season. The Wolverines have won 10 NCA titles since 2013.

The Michigan dance team performs at home football and basketball games and is led by head coach Valerie Stead Potsos and her staff. In addition to performing on campus, the team also represents U-M at national competitions. In 2021, they repeated as national champions at the United Dance Association (UDA), taking home top honors in the College Virtual competition in the Division IA jazz and hip-hop categories.

UNIVERSITY BOARD OF REGENTS

As of August 2023

JORDAN B.
ACKER

Regent Jordan B. Acker is a Democrat from Huntington Woods, Michigan, and has served on the Board of Regents since 2019. He received his B.A. degree from the University of Michigan in 2006 and his J.D. degree from American University – Washington College of Law in 2010. He is the first Regent to have graduated in the 21st century.

Prior to law school, Acker worked as a communications aide to the House Judiciary Committee. After law school, Regent Acker served as an associate in the White House Office of Presidential Personnel before being appointed by President Obama to be an attorney-advisor to Secretary Janet Napolitano at the Department of Homeland Security. While at DHS, Regent Acker worked on cyber, immigration and other homeland security issues, and served on the staffs of both Secretary Napolitano and Deputy Secretary Jane Lute.

In 2013, Regent Acker joined his family business, Goodman Acker PC, where he practices law and is responsible for the firm's business development. At Goodman Acker, he was responsible for growing the business from 1 office to 4 statewide, and doubling the number of attorneys, 50% of whom are now women. He served on the Jewish Federation of Metro Detroit NextGen Board of Directors from 2013-2018. He was named one of Crains Detroit Business 40 under 40 in 2020, Michigan Lawyers Weekly Up and Coming Lawyers, and is an alum of the Michigan Political Leadership Program Fellow at Michigan State University. Since joining the Board of Regents, Regent Acker has focused on eliminating sexual misconduct and changes in NCAA athletics, also serving on the audit, health affairs, and personnel committees. He served as Board Chair in 2021-22, helping guide the University toward the hiring of Dr. Santa J. Ono as President.

Regent Acker's wife Lauren is also a proud graduate of U-M (B.S. '07) and they have three daughters.

Regent Acker was elected to the Board of Regents in 2018. His term expires January 1, 2027.

MICHAEL J.
BEHM

Regent Behm is a Democrat from Grand Blanc. He received his A.B. degree from the University of Michigan in 1989 and his J.D. degree from Wayne State University in 1992.

Regent Behm is president and owner of the law firm Behm & Behm. He is also the chairperson of Business Forward Michigan and was a co-founder and former president of Level Field Institute.

Regent Behm is an AV rated attorney by Martindale Hubbell, is listed as a Michigan Super Lawyer, and is recognized by the American Trial Lawyers Association as one of the Top 100 Trial Lawyers in Michigan. Additionally, Regent Behm is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates and is one of 15 attorneys in the state of Michigan to be named a fellow in the Melvin M. Belli Society. In 2022, Regent Behm became a council member of the Michigan State Bar Negligence law section.

Regent Behm was an officer of the Michigan Association for Justice from 2008-12, serving as president in 2011-12. He also devotes his time to his local community where he has served on the Board of Trustees of the Flint Institute of Arts, as a Big Brother, through Big Brothers/Big Sisters, and is a founding member of the Flint Youth Initiative. Regent Behm and his wife Kay are the proud parents of three Wolverines.

Regent Behm was elected to the Board of Regents in 2014 and reelected in 2022. His term expires January 1, 2031.

MARK J.
BERNSTEIN

Regent Bernstein is a Democrat from Ann Arbor. He holds three degrees from the University of Michigan: A.B. (1993), J.D. (1996) and M.B.A. (1996).

Regent Bernstein is president and managing partner of The Sam Bernstein Law Firm, PLLC. In 2018, Regent Bernstein served as the Director of Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer's Transition Office. He served on the Michigan Civil Rights Commission. During his tenure, he served as chair of the commission, helped establish the Michigan Civil Rights Academy, and convened the Michigan Civil Rights Summit. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of Detroit Public Television and Launch Michigan, the Executive Committee of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit, the Executive Board of the Michigan Association for Justice and was elected by both defense and plaintiff attorneys to serve on the State Bar of Michigan Negligence Section Council. He is a fellow of the Michigan State Bar Foundation and a Michigan Lawyers Weekly Leader in the Law.

Regent Bernstein served on the Board of Directors of Bend the Arc (formerly the Jewish Funds for Justice), a national public foundation; the Michigan League of Conservation Voters; and the Detroit Jewish News Foundation. Previously, he served on the Board of Directors of the Jewish Federation of Washtenaw County, as chair of the Community Relations Committee of the Jewish Federation of Washtenaw County, on the advisory board of Jewish Family Services of Washtenaw County, and as a trustee of The Isaiah Funds (an interfaith disaster recovery fund). He has also served on both the governing board and Board of Trustees of the University of Michigan Hillel.

Regent Bernstein was first elected to the Board of Regents in 2012 and was re-elected in 2020. His current term expires January 1, 2029.

UNIVERSITY BOARD OF REGENTS

As of August 2023

PAUL W.
BROWN

Regent Brown is a Democrat from northern Michigan. He received his B.A. and M.B.A. degrees from the University of Michigan and his J.D. degree from Wayne State University.

Regent Brown is a managing partner of eLab Ventures, a venture capital firm headquartered in Michigan with offices in Silicon Valley. Prior to joining the board he taught as a non-tenure track faculty member at the University of Michigan School of Engineering, teaching classes in finance and entrepreneurship. Previously, he was Vice President of Capital Markets at the Michigan Economic Development Corporation (MEDC), under Governor Granholm and Governor Snyder, where he managed the bulk of the state's $2 billion 21st Century Jobs Fund investment portfolio and developed programs focused on increasing the availability of capital for businesses in Michigan. He has testified before Congress on issues of economic development and access to capital. Prior to joining MEDC, Regent Brown practiced law in the Manhattan office of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP. He began his legal career as a law clerk to Judge John O'Meara in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Regent Brown serves on the board of several early stage technology companies and Wolverine Mutual Insurance Company. He also serves as board member of the Michigan History Foundation, the Youth Foundation of America, and Community Foundation of Southeast Michigan New Economy Initiative advisory board. He is a past board member of the Michigan League of Conservation Voters, the Michigan Venture Capital Association, and the Venture Michigan Fund.

Regent Brown's wife Nicole is an Emmy nominated actress, from Livonia, they have two children.

Regent Brown was elected to the Board of Regents in 2018, serving as board chair in 2022-'23. His term expires January 1, 2027.

SARAH HUBBARD

Regent Hubbard, a Republican from Okemos, is chair of the Board of Regents. She holds her B.A. and M.B.A. degrees from the University of Michigan and her M.P.A. degree from Western Michigan University.

Regent Hubbard previously served as Board Member, Alumni Association of the University of Michigan, Board Member, Alumnae Council of the University of Michigan, President of the Alumni Club of Lansing, and President of the Alumnae Club of Lansing. She is a recipient of the National Service Citation from the Alumnae Council and a Life Member of the Alumni Association.

As an undergraduate, Regent Hubbard helped re-establish the University of Michigan Equestrian Team and continues to ride competitively in the hunter/jumper discipline of equestrian sports.

Regent Hubbard was elected to the Board of Regents in 2020. Her term expires January 1, 2029.

SANTA J. ONO

15th President of the University of Michigan

Santa J. Ono, Ph.D., is the 15th president of the University of Michigan. He began a five-year term on Oct. 14, 2022.

A recognized leader in higher education in the United States and Canada, President Ono is an experienced vision researcher whose pioneering work in experimental medicine focuses on the immune system and eye disease. At U-M he is professor of ophthalmology and visual sciences, and microbiology and immunology in the Medical School, and molecular, cellular and developmental biology in the College of Literature, Sciences and the Arts.

President Ono currently serves as the chair of the U-M Health Board, the chair of Fulbright Canada, the chair of the University Climate Change Coalition (UC3), and is an honorary Chairperson of the Japan America Society of Michigan and Southwestern Ontario. He also serves on a range of other boards including the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors, the American Association of Colleges and Universities, the American Council on Education, the Association of Public & Land-Grant Universities, the U7+ Alliance, the Council on Competitiveness, the University Musical Society, Terramera, the Detroit Economic Club, Business Leaders of Michigan and the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Foundation Board of Trustees.

He has also been appointed by Michigan Governor

Gretchen Whitmer to serve on the Executive Committee of Michigan Economic Development Corporation and the Growing Michigan Together Council.

He joined U-M from the University of British Columbia, where he served as president and vice chancellor since 2016.

While at UBC, he chaired the U15 Group of Canadian Research Universities and the Research Universities of British Columbia, and served on the board of Universities Canada. He also served on the steering committee of the Association of Pacific Rim Universities; Government of Canada's Industry Advisory Ad Hoc Roundtable on COVID-19 Testing; and the boards of Fulbright Canada and Mitacs.

Prior to his appointment at UBC, he was president of the University of Cincinnati, where he also served as professor of pediatrics at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center. While at the University of Cincinnati, he was appointed by Ohio Gov. John Kasich to lead the state's Biopharmaceutical Task Force and to the Board of the Ohio Third Frontier, the state's technology-based economic development program.

Dr. Ono has served as senior vice provost and deputy to the provost at Emory University. He also has taught at Johns Hopkins University, Harvard University and University College London.

He is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Canadian Academy of Health Sciences, the National Academy of Inventors, USA and the Johns Hopkins Society of Scholars. In 2022, he was elected to the American Academy of Arts & Sciences.

He has advised national and regional governments on higher education and mental health. He also has advised companies such as GSK, Johnson & Johnson, Merck and Novartis, and served as director and chief scientific officer of iCo Therapeutics.

President Ono has served on the editorial boards for several peer-reviewed medical and scientific journals, including Immunology, The Journal of Biological Chemistry, The Journal of Immunology and The Journal of Allergy & Clinical Immunology.

He holds honorary doctorates from Chiba University and the Vancouver School of Theology and is a recipient of the Reginald Wilson Diversity Leadership Award from the American Council on Education, the Professional Achievement Award from University of Chicago, a Grand Challenges Hero Award from UCLA, and the NAAAP 100 Award from the National Association of Asian American Professionals.

He earned his B.A. in biological sciences from the University of Chicago in 1984, and a Ph.D. in experimental medicine from McGill University in 1991.

President Ono is married to Wendy Yip, an immunologist and lawyer. They are the parents of two daughters, Sarah Yip-Ono and Juliana Yip-Ono.

Warde J. Manuel was named Michigan's Donald R. Shepherd Director of Athletics on January 29, 2016. Manuel's original five-year appointment was extended on Feb. 18, 2021, and runs through June 30, 2026.

Manuel's return to Ann Arbor brings him full-circle from an accomplished student-athlete and athletic administrator at U-M to a distinguished career as an athletic director and back again.

A three-time Michigan alumnus and two-sport athlete who played football under Bo Schembechler, Manuel returned to U-M following a nearly four-year run as director of athletics at the University of Connecticut.

Manuel is Michigan's 12th athletic director in the university's intercollegiate athletics history that dates to the 1885-86 school year. U-M has 31 teams and more than 950 student-athletes. The self-supporting department has an annual budget of $197 million and a staff of 400.

Manuel has served on the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) executive committee since 2009 and served a one-year term as president during the 2020-21 academic year. He also serves on the board of directors for The Collegiate Women Sports Awards, the executive committee for the Black AD Alliance and is one of Michigan's representatives on the Big Ten Conference Equality Coalition.

Success has followed Manuel each year at U-M. In 2022-23, the Wolverines set a school and Big Ten Conference academic year record with 13 Big Ten championships, including second consecutive titles in football and ice hockey. Four Michigan student-athletes earned national player of the year awards while U-M attained five individual national championship honors between three student-athletes. All told, U-M finished 11th in the LEARFIELD Directors' Cup standings. An incredible 35 student-athletes won individual Big Ten championships while 44 attained All-America accolades. Nearly 500 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors and 695 student-athletes earned U-M Athletic Academic Achievement honors.

Manuel guided Michigan Athletics to one of the most successful years in its long history in 2021-22. U-M finished third in the LEARFIELD Directors' Cup standings, its fifth consecutive top-six finish under Manuel. The Wolverines claimed 13 conference championships, again leading all Big Ten schools, while wrestler Nick Suriano won the NCAA 125-pound title. Twelve teams finished 2021-22 among the top 10 nationally: women's basketball (t-5th); field hockey (t-5th); football (t-3rd); men's gymnastics (3rd); women's gymnastics (8th); hockey (t-3rd); rowing (10th); women's soccer (t-5th); women's swimming and diving (7th); men's tennis (t-5th); water polo (t-5th); and wrestling (2nd).

The 2021-22 Wolverines set a school record with 507 student-athletes earning Academic All-Big Ten Conference honors, and 11 individuals earning Academic All-America honors for maintaining at least a 3.3 grade-point average while also excelling on the field of play. Another school record was set, with 701 student-athletes earning a grade point average of 3.0 or better during the academic year. Forty-eight student-athletes earned All-America honors during the year, while 118 earned All-Big Ten honors, and 28 won individual conference championships.

All told, during Manuel's seven-year tenure, the Wolverines have captured an NCAA Championship in women's gymnastics (2021), and finished runner up nationally in wrestling (2022), field hockey (2020), baseball (2019), men's basketball (2018) and women's cross country (2017). Wolverines have combined to win seven individual NCAA titles during Manuel's tenure, 55 regular season and tournament conference titles, 21 Academic All-America honors, 396 Big Ten Distinguished scholars, and 2,637 Academic All-Big Ten honors.

In Manuel's second full year as athletic director, 2017-18, Michigan unveiled the Stephen M. Ross Athletic Campus South Complex with the official opening in January 2018. Thanks to the efforts of countless individuals, the facility provides specialized spaces for nine of Michigan's varsity teams, shared resources for all the teams, as well as competition venues. It includes strength and conditioning, athletic medicine, meeting space and locker rooms, and allows for consolidation of various team facilities currently dispersed across the Stephen M. Ross Athletic Campus.

Manuel's return to Ann Arbor brings him full-circle as a student-athlete, three-time degree-holder and athletic administrator at U-M, to a distinguished career as an athletic director, and back again. He returns to U-M following a nearly four-year run as director of athletics at the University of Connecticut, highlighted by being recognized as the 2015 NACDA Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year.

Manuel became the director of athletics at the University of Connecticut in 2012. UConn teams won six NCAA national championships under Manuel's leadership -- the most ever by UConn teams in a three-year period. In 2014, UConn's three national championship teams (field hockey and men's and women's basketball) all posted perfect 1,000 single-year scores in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR). In 2015, 13 UConn teams posted perfect single-year scores, marking a dramatic academic improvement at the school.

In 2014-15, the UConn field hockey team won its second straight NCAA championship and the women's basketball team won a third consecutive NCAA title.

Within three months of his arrival, Manuel directed UConn's acceptance into membership of Hockey East. He also oversaw a coaching transition in men's basketball with the retirement of Hall of Fame coach Jim Calhoun and the hiring of former UConn student-athlete and NBA player Kevin Ollie.

Manuel led the completion of the $40 million fundraising effort for the construction of the Werth Family UConn Basketball Champions Center, which opened in the fall of 2014 in order to provide UConn basketball programs with a training, practice and academic services home.

Prior to arriving in Connecticut, he led a 20-sport program at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Buffalo from 2005 through 2012. During his tenure, the Buffalo Bulls experienced an unparalleled period of success from an athletic, academic and community service perspective.

Manuel was honored by Sports Business Journal as a 2008 national "40-Under-40" honoree after receiving the same honor from Business First of Buffalo in fall of 2007. Manuel has served on a number of national and athletic conference committees and boards.

In 2007, he accepted the Opportunity Award by all-time tennis great Billie Jean King, when the University at Buffalo was recognized by the Women's Sports Foundation as one of four "standout" colleges and universities in the nation for outstanding achievement in providing equitable athletic opportunities for its female student-athletes.

Born May 22, 1968, Manuel is a native of New Orleans. He was a high school All-America football player and played for U-M under Schembechler. He earned multiple letters and started at defensive end in his sophomore year. His football career was cut short by a neck injury, and he subsequently lettered as a member of the Wolverines' track and field team.

Manuel earned his bachelor of general studies with a focus in psychology in 1990, his master's degree in social work from U-M in 1993 and an MBA from U-M's Stephen M. Ross School of Business in 2005.

After graduating from U-M, he was coordinator of U-M's Wade H. McCree Jr. Incentive Scholarship Program from 1990 to 1993. The program is a partnership with the Michigan Association of State Universities and Detroit Public Schools that helps students prepare for higher education at public universities in Michigan.

He subsequently worked briefly as an academic advisor with the Georgia Tech Athletic Association before being named assistant athletic director of academic affairs.

Afterward, Manuel served in several roles within Michigan's athletic department from 1996-2005. In 2000 he was named associate athletic director with oversight responsibility for operational facets of the university's athletic program. He also oversaw Michigan's football and men's basketball programs.

Manuel, and his wife, Chrislan, a U-M alum who earned a master of health services administration degree in 1993, have a daughter, Emma, and a son, Evan.
